

Email Hoaxes

Email Hoaxes: If you ever receive a rumor e-mail, or one that just sounds too good to be true, it probably is not true and it is known as an "Urban Legend". Please visit one of these web sites to better inform yourselves before forwarding on such nonsense! Try one of these web sites for more information on e-mail hoaxes: Snopes - Urban Legends or Hoaxbusters.

You may even find more e-mail there that you have been circulating over the Internet for years. Please do not be a party of perpetuating such urban legends. It just wastes bandwidth over the Internet and it clogs others e-mail boxes with trash!

Better still, why not educate those who send you such garbage by finding the urban legend and e-mailing the web link back to the person who sent the e-mail to you. In that way we can educate more people to look up such urban legends and putting them to rest once and for all!
